

The purpose of this letter is to protest the proposal to allow more sex and profanity during kids' television viewing hours. Our children do not need any more exposure to this and I would hope that our government regulations department has enough sense to back up that argument.

Any parent who cares for the proper development of their children would agree to the same.

Those that wish to surround themselves with this have plenty of ways and opportunities to find it already.

Thank you,

Josh Hawkes